Requirements

1. Create an assignment02 folder in GitHub submissions folder and create an index.html page inside that folder.
  - a. Header `` section with a background image and TV show / movie title
    - Header has a fixed height and stretches (`background-size:cover`) across browser width
    - Use `<h1>` tag for the title
  - b. Content `` section that has text and images about the TV show / movie. Text can be plot summary, reviews, or other content related to your topic. Feel free to copy text from sources.
    - Content div has set width (below 1100px) and is centered on the page

- Content div and document <body> have different background colors
  - At least three (3) sections, each with an appropriate heading
  - Each section has at least two (2) paragraphs and at least one (1) image
  - Each image needs to be floated either left or right around the text with at least one image floated differently. Use classes to define float properties.
- c. Footer  on the bottom of the page below the content
- Footer should stretch across the browser and match the same styling as the header
  - Footer has background color different than article content and body
  - Setup a link in the Footer to go to watch page or other relevant link, target a new window
- d. Margins and paddings used where applicable
- e. All elements and text need to be easily readable
- f. Update your main student page (index.html) in your submissions folder adding Assignment 02: TV Show/Movie Article to be listed under Assignments, linking to the assignment02 page
2. Push pages, using GitHub Desktop:
- a. Fill out the summary field and click Commit to gh-pages button and then click the Push origin blue button
3. Verify the student main page is linking to assignment02 page correctly by visiting your GitHub Page website URL
4. Validate either using Validate by Direct Input (copying/pasting the HTML) or Validate by File Upload using the HTML Validation: <https://validator.w3.org/> (ignore warnings) and fix any errors, pushing up any changes

The Morning Show

About

The Morning Show, also known as Morning Wars in Australia and Indonesia, is an American drama television series starring Jennifer Aniston, Reese Witherspoon, and Steve Carell that premiered on Apple TV+ on November 1, 2019. The series is inspired by Brian Stelter's 2013 book Top of the Morning: Inside the Cutthroat World of Morning TV. The show examines the characters and culture behind a network broadcast morning news program. After allegations of sexual misconduct, the male co-anchor of the program is forced off the show. Aspects of the #MeToo movement are examined from multiple perspectives as more information comes out regarding said misconduct. Subsequent seasons focus on other political topics and current events, including the COVID-19 pandemic, racial inequality, the Capitol riot, and the Russian invasion of Ukraine.

Filming

Principal photography for the first season commenced on October 31, 2018, at the James Oviatt Building in Los Angeles. Filming continued in Los Angeles until filming started in New York City on May 9, 2019. Production on the first season also concluded that May, after seven months of filming.

Production on the second season began on February 24, 2020. On March 12, 2020, Apple TV+ halted production on the series due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The second season resumed filming on October 19, 2020. Between February and March 2021, Steve Carell, Jennifer Aniston, Mark Duplass, and Hannah Leder were spotted in Los Angeles filming the second season.

Production on the third season began on August 16, 2022, and it was announced on February 11, 2023 that the season's filming had wrapped up.

Audience Viewership

According to TV analytics provider TVision, The Morning Show has been viewed by panel members 5.03 times as much as the average Apple TV+ original series or shows TVision has measured since Apple TV+ launched in November 2019. The series became the second-most watched Apple TV+ series after Ted Lasso.

In December 2023, Deadline reported after the third season was released, the show became Apple TV+'s most watched series.
